

Ann & Monroe Carell Jr. Family Sculpture Trail

- 1 Jenny Holzer, Survival Series: In a Dream You Saw a Way...
- 2 Frank Fleming, Gathering of Animals
- 3 Siah Armajani, The Glass Bridge for Nashville
- 4 Doug Hollis, High-back Windharp Chairs
- 5 Tom Czarnopys, Girdled Figure
- 6 Sophie Ryder, Crawling Lady Hare
- 7 Alicja Kwade, Pars pro Toto
- 8 Ian Hamilton Finlay, The Present Order (In Italian)
- 9 James Turrell, Blue Peshier
- 10 John T. Scott, Tree Poem
- 11 Ulrich Rückriem, Untitled

East Gardens

- A Turner Seasons Garden, featuring TRAINS!
- B Herb Study Garden
- C Carell Dogwood Garden
- D Burr Terrace Garden
- E Howe Garden
- F Bracken Foundation Children's Garden

West Gardens

- G Rose Study Garden
- H Bradford Robertson Color Garden
- I Blevins Japanese Garden
- J Robinson Family Water Garden
- K Sigourney Cheek Literary Garden
- L Wills Perennial Garden
- M Martin Boxwood Garden

The Carell Trail Gardens

- N Trillium Trove
- O Wild Tennessee
- P Julie & Bob Gordon Stream Garden
- Q Woodland Edge
- R Cedar Glade
- S Limestone Quarry

Ann & Monroe Carell Jr. Family Sculpture Trail

Hickory Loop
Cedar Loop

Botanic Hall

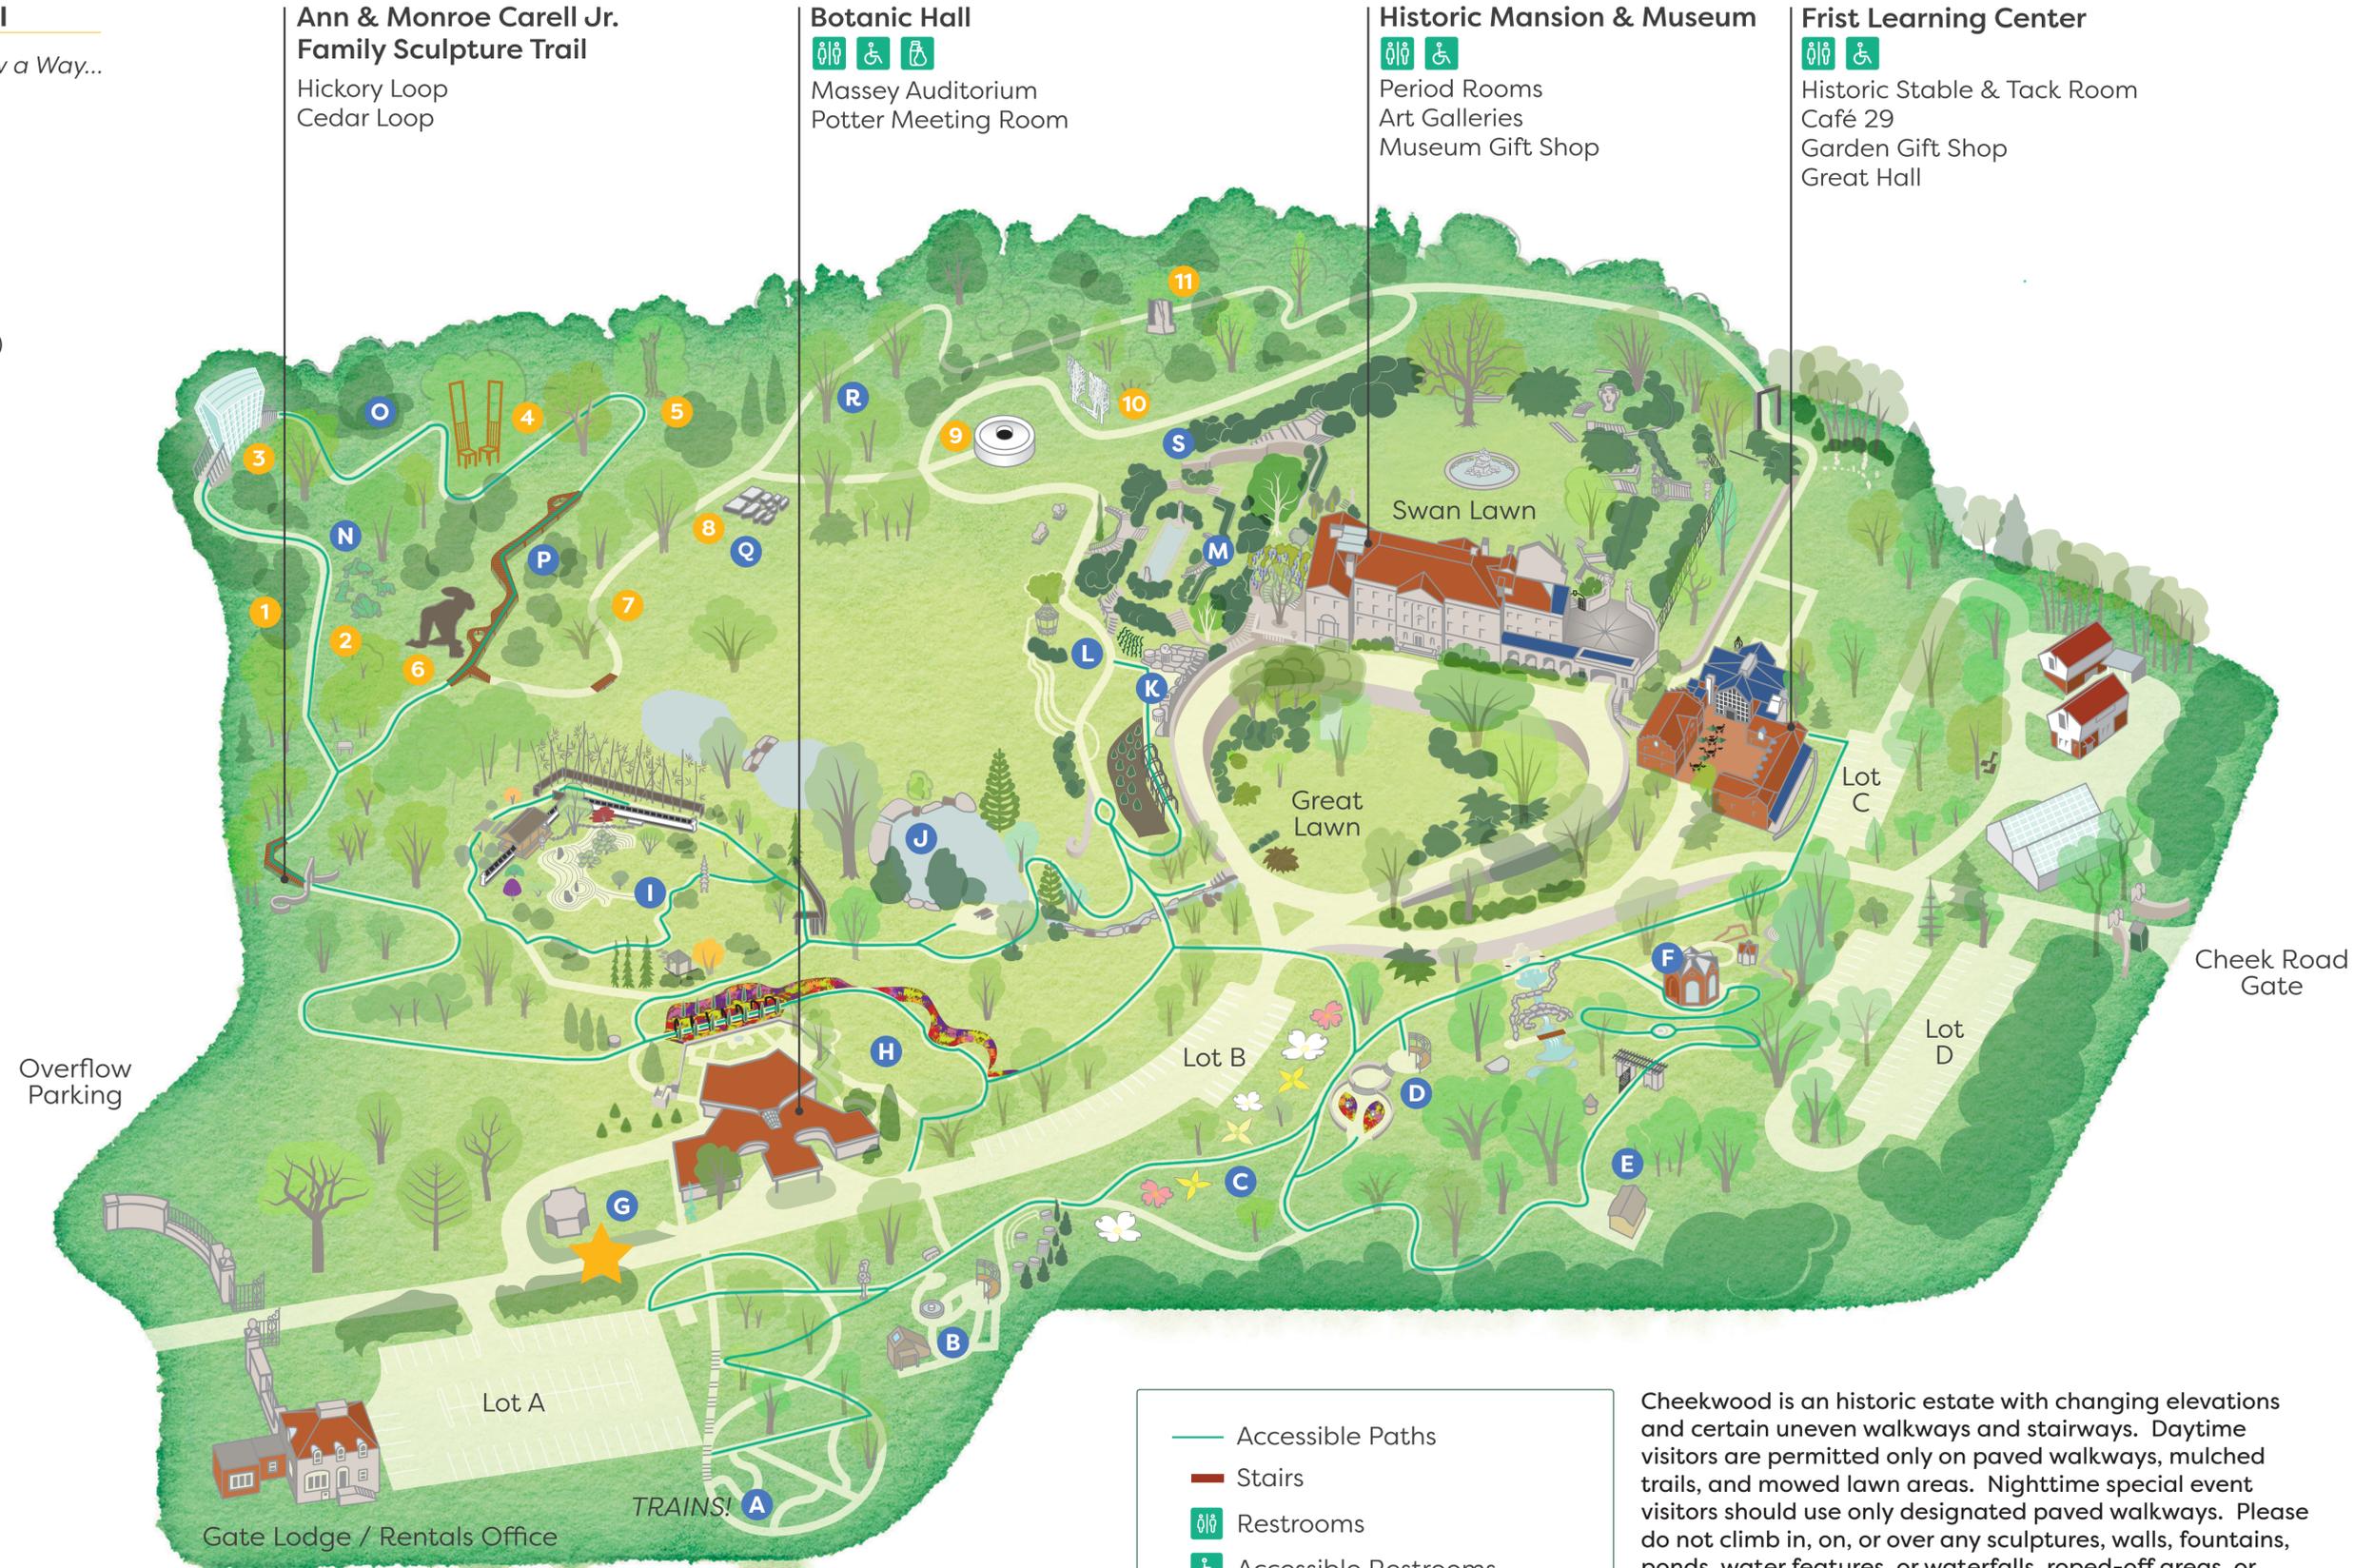

Massey Auditorium
Potter Meeting Room

Historic Mansion & Museum

Period Rooms
Art Galleries
Museum Gift Shop

Frist Learning Center

Historic Stable & Tack Room
Café 29
Garden Gift Shop
Great Hall

- Accessible Paths
- Stairs
- Restrooms
- Accessible Restrooms
- ★ Visitor Services & Admissions

Cheekwood is an historic estate with changing elevations and certain uneven walkways and stairways. Daytime visitors are permitted only on paved walkways, mulched trails, and mowed lawn areas. Nighttime special event visitors should use only designated paved walkways. Please do not climb in, on, or over any sculptures, walls, fountains, ponds, water features, or waterfalls, roped-off areas, or trees or any other plants, and always use caution for a safe and enjoyable visit. An abundance of caution should be used while enjoying the historic estate.